Non-Discrimination Policy

Dramatic Truth School of the Arts (a.k.a. Dramatic Truth Ministries, and Dramatic Truth School of Ballet) admits students of any race, color, national and ethnic origin to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally made available to students at the school. It does not discriminate on the basis of sex, race, color, national and ethnic origin in administration of its education policies, admissions policies and other school administered programs.

Because Dramatic Truth is classified as a school under IRS guidelines, we must be able to substantiate our compliance with federal non-discrimination requirements. Please help us by indicating in the space provided the race or ethnic origin of each student being enrolled. Suggested categories are: African-American, Asian, Caucasian, Hispanic, Native-American, etc. Your response to this question is strictly voluntary.

Advancement Policy

Advancement depends on attitude, skill development, and in Ballet III - V, successful completion of a written test. The fee for physical testing is $20 per student per test. For written tests, each student is loaned a DVD and workbook for study to be returned at time of testing. If not returned an additional $25 will be assessed to your account.

Student Conduct

Young men and women are carefully placed in classes so as to ensure each individual's modesty is protected. No physical contact or flirtatious activity is tolerated. A Christ-like attitude is expected toward staff and other students.

Dance Class Dress Code

Ballet:
Women must wear pink tights, pink shoes, and colored leotard designated by ballet level (see Class Descriptions for color). Chest must be covered and supported. Camisoles are NOT allowed. Add knit shorts over tights in mixed classes. No canvas shoes until Level III.
Men wear white (Ballet I, II, III) or black (Ballet IV and V) under armor shirt or sleeveless undershirt, ballet shoes (black or white), compression shorts under black dance pants.

Jazz:
Fitted black T-shirt or tank top covering the chest and hips, black dance pants, and black jazz shoes may be used in performances.

Modern:
Solid color leotards, chest covered and supported, no shoes. Add dance pants in mixed classes.

Hair:
Hair must be in a ponytail through Pre-Ballet. Beginning at Ballet I, hair must be in a bun. In all other classes hair must be pulled back and secured off the face.
